

The Pretty Poodle

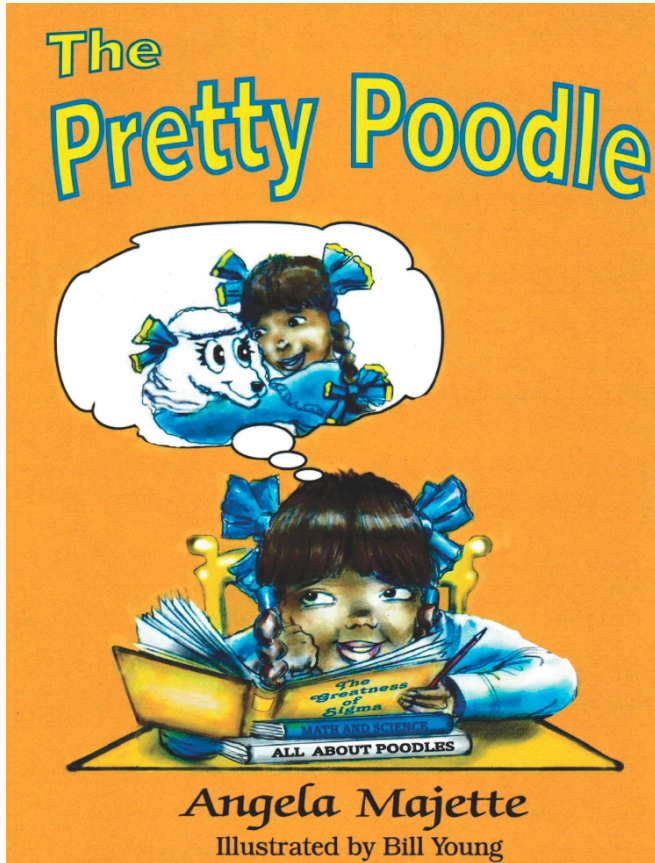

The Pretty Poodle is a children's book that promotes literacy and encourages academic achievement. This work of historical fiction is the tale of a young girl named Mary who learns valuable lessons that inspire her historic accomplishments later in life.

A poodle is what Mary wants more than anything in the world. Mary is hopeful that her parents will allow her to have a pet, until her parents present her with a challenge that she must meet before she can get the poodle that she desires. Will Mary give up on her dream of having a poodle or will she rise to the challenge?

The story pays tribute to Mary Lou Allison Gardner Little, an orphan, educator, and pioneer who galvanized seven young Black-American women on the predominantly white campus of Butler University in 1922 to form what is today an international public service organization with more than 100,000 women dedicated to motivating youth to greater horizons and enhancing the quality of life for women and girls in the United States and abroad.

The book's messages of perseverance, family, values, love, and achieving goals are appropriate for all children.

Purchase includes a free PDF workbook that includes reading and writing activities related to the story.

Title: The Pretty Poodle
 Website: theprettypoodle.com
 Author: Angela Majette
 Illustrator: Bill Young
 Publisher: Heiress Publishing
 Publication Date: May 1, 2014
 Format: Hardcover
 ISBN: 978-0-9911500-0-7
 Genre: Juvenile Historical Fiction
 Dimensions: 11.25 inches X 8.75 inches
 Pages: 42 pages
 Illustrations: 25 full color illustrations
 Age Range: 6 - 12
 Grade levels: 1 - 6

AVAILABLE THROUGH

theprettypoodle.com
amazon.com
booksamillion.com

Contact info@theprettypoodle.com
 for distribution or bulk orders

Contact author@theprettypoodle.com to schedule book signings and author appearances

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Angela Majette is the Founder and CEO of Just Write Legal, and the Founder and National President of Black Connect - an award-winning national organization dedicated to eliminating the racial wealth gap in America through entrepreneurship. Angela is a former educator and she has been recognized for her leadership in business and education with the Brown Select Award by the American Bar Association; Business Award by the National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc.; the Youth Outreach Award by Lake Sumter State College and the Dynamic Women Award by The Empire Federation of Women's Clubs, Inc. Angela has been featured in leading publications including Forbes, Essence, and Ebony and she speaks to girls across the United States on the topics of college readiness, and career and personal goals.